Twenty-Five Cases Settled In Circuit Court This Week

Twenty-five cases, which were brought before the Circuit Court were settled either by judgment by default or judgment by agreement.

One criminal case was also settled without a trial.

T. J. Stockstill, who had pleaded not guilty to a charge of assault and battery with intent to kill, changed his plea to guilty of simple assault and battery.

This plea was accepted by the state and Stockstill was fined $250 and sentenced to 60 days in the county jail.

The court suspended all of his days and $200 of his fine. This action can be reversed. The suspension depends on his good behavior and the payment of the balance of his fine and all costs by April 4.

A criminal case is set to be tried before a jury tomorrow. The case is another assault and battery with intent charge against Hillary Odom.

Mrs. Carl Smith Seriously Hurt In Auto Wreck

Mrs. Carl T. Smith, music teacher at Bay High School was in Oschner Hospital in New Orleans this week, suffering from injuries received in an automobile wreck which took place near Lumberton Friday.

The Bay St. Louis instructor was returning from the State teachers meeting in Jackson when the wreck occurred. Friends said the car in which she and a brother in law and sister were riding was tossed off the road by another car when the rear bumper of Mrs. Smith's automobile was hooked. The other car had allegedly attempted to pass and was forced back by an oncoming vehicle. Mrs. Smith suffered breaks in both arms, head cuts and bruises, a crushed shoulder, pulled leg muscles and other injuries. The other passengers suffered cuts and bruises and one injured a knee.

It has not been determined how long Mrs. Smith must remain in the hospital, but it is thought she will not be able to return to her school work this year.

Flower Show Plans Set For Waveland

The Town and County Garden Club of Waveland this week announced details of its annual flower show to be held on April 19 at Waveland Town Hall.

There will be four divisions: Horticultural (specimen and potted), arrangements, Junior Class and Commercial Class.

The show is open to the public for entries in the Horticultural division only.

Potted plants will be accepted for the show from 2:30 to 4:30 p. m. on Monday, April 18; Junior and Commercial entries will be received from 9 to 12 on April 19th.

Judging will take place from one until three in the afternoon and the show is open to the public from three until six. All entries must be removed by 7:30 in the evening.

Cleve Reed Held On Open Charge After Shooting

Cleve Reed of Pearl River County is being held in the Hancock County jail on an open charge awaiting the final report on the condition of Marvin Bass, also from the neighboring county.

Reed was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Paul Egloff for shooting Bass in Charlie Jones' place in Pearl River.

Reed told District Attorney Boyce Holleman that he did shoot Bass, but only after "he pulled a knife on me and backed me against the wall."

Reed also stated that Bass slapped another man around before he came at him with a knife.

At the present time Bass is on the critical list by a New Orleans hospital.

HIGHWAY PATROLMAN BILL KENNY COVERS THREE WRECKS IN 12 HOURS

State Highway Patrolman Bill Kenny was kept plenty busy Sunday and early Monday morning with three wrecks on the Hancock County section of Highway 90.

The first accident occurred at two o'clock Sunday afternoon when Arthur Ferrell of New Orleans, driving a 1953 Willys pulled out in front of Stephen Webster of South Dakota at the intersection of Carroll Ave. and Highway 90.

No one was injured and both cars received an estimated $100 damage.

The second wreck took place during the evening hours when a 1950 Ford driven by Jimmie Lee Sullivan of Keesler Field, crashed into a cow near Pearl River.

Sullivan explained that he was blinded by an oncoming car, when the cow stopped in front of his automobile. After the collision the vehicle occupied by Sullivan and two companions also of Keesler was turned over. None was injured.

The last wreck, of the 12 hour period, happened at 1:30 Monday morning.

A car driven by Hammond Hinto of Pascagoula, accompanied by Mrs. Janice Farmer, piled into the side of the White Bayou Bridge.

Following the initial impact the car traveled 100 feet, according to Patrolman Kenny, and landed upside down.

Hinto is suffering from multiple lacerations on his face and left arm and a possible fracture of his elbow.

Kenny also announced that two other cows were hit over the week. But the accidents were not reported because the drivers of the cars did not stop.

The Board of Supervisors voted three to one to inform the State Hospital Commission that the Hillburton Hospital funds, earmarked for Hancock County, were not wanted.

Supervisor R. G. Hubbard of Beat Five voted against, while Supervisors Johnson Saraw, Jack Lott and Frank Kellar voted yes. Supervisor Joe Jones of Beat One was absent.

These funds more than $200,000, were promised the county for the construction of a hospital under the Hillburton Plan. After many meetings and much discussion the board voted to build a county owned hospital without any federal aid.

The main supporters of the Hillburton Hospital were the American Legion and Supervisor Hubbard.

A local and private bill has been introduced to the State Legislature by Representative Walter James Phillips, to enable the county to float bonds to construct the county hospital without holding an election.

Supervisor Hubbard explained his position concerning this matter by saying, "Due to the letter in a last week's paper by the other four Supervisors (which sounds to me like it might have been written by a SIXTH supervisor) explaining their position on the proposed Bond issue, I feel it is my duty to the people of Hancock County to make my position clear—since my actions are motivated solely by a desire to serve the taxpayers' best interests."

"When at a Board meeting I feel this proposed resolution is not in the best interest of the county, I mean exactly what I said."

"In February, several days after the Board adjourned, the President of the Board came to me saying he and the other members wanted to have Rep. Phillips introduce a bill to authorize the Board to float a Bond issue for the hospital and asked if I would sign the resolution." "I suggested that he call a special meeting if the matter could not wait until the regular March meeting. No more was said to me about this meeting."

"However, between the time Mr. Shaw spoke to me and the March 8 meeting, Representative Phillips HAD introduced a resolution to a House Committee which was signed by the other four Supervisors and was NOT certified by the Clerk of the Board. This resolution failed to come out of Committee and was again brought up at the March 8 meeting of the Board of Supervisors." "I voted against it because it is my opinion that when a large Bond issue is proposed the proper way is to let the people vote on it. No legislation is necessary for this Bond issue."

"All that has to be done under the General Laws is for the Board of Supervisors to call an election and let the people decide. The other four Supervisors call this type of election a waste of money. It is my opinion that $3,000 spent for this type of election would be money well spent."

"If the Supervisors are trying to save money for the people, they must have had a change of heart, for in 1953 they thought it was perfectly all right for one Supervisor to purchase approximately $16,000 of wood preservative to preserve about 400 worth of lumber."

"Yet they tell you they 'Cannot spend tax money at random calling elections.' This is not the first time they have denied the people an election. The American Legion Hospital Committee pleaded for months for an election to let the people decide between a Hillburton or a county hospital."

"The other four members of the Board are so anxious to save $3,000, yet they turned down definitely a gift of about $385,000 from the Hillburton Fund without giving the people a chance to express their wishes on the matter by an election. What is the object of saving $3,000 on one hand and throwing away over $300,000 on the other?"

ARRIVE FOR TOUR—A group of out of town garden club members arrive at the home and Mrs. Percival Stern for a tour of the gardens during the annual Garden Club Pilgrimage.

EN CLUB LUNCHEON—The picture above was taken at the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club she and a brother in law and sister were riding was tossed off the road by another car when the rear bumper of Mrs. Smith's automobile was hooked. The other car had allegedly attempted to pass and was forced back by an oncoming vehicle. Mrs. Smith suffered breaks in both arms, head cuts and bruises, a crushed shoulder, pulled leg muscles and other injuries. The other passengers suffered cuts and bruises and one injured a knee.

Who Cut Telephone Cable at Henderson Point?

telephone strike in this week, when the telephone company reported to the public that damage had been done to the Henderson Point line.

company offered a $5000 reward to anyone who could furnish information leading to the person or persons responsible.

While the union representatives here and in Gulfport issued a statement saying "It is an interesting speculation to think that they (the union) might have manipulated this incident for the purpose of influencing public opinion," company stated that since the service "is so vital to the community," those responsible "will be prosecuted to the extent of the law."

union took no blame for the strike in its statement but said "in view of the millions of dollars spent by the company for the purpose of the public sentiment the company is not responsible for this particular incident."

would be a small price to pay for the purpose for which it was intended."

Strikers here, meanwhile, were using their spare time, whenever possible, to take other jobs, union spokesmen said.

There were no incident of personal violence reported.

Visitors From Far West And North Tour Gardens

Visitors from as far west as California and as far North as Michigan were on hand Wednesday to view the beautiful gardens of Bay St. Louis, during the annual Gulf Coast Spring Pilgrimage.

The first stop on the tour was azalea studded garden of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brignac on South Beach.

While there the guests were served coffee and pastries by the hostess.

After a short drive down the beach the large group of ladies visited the home of Mr. and

And on the other strike front—that of the L & N Railroad, workers still held out for health and welfare benefits.

Commuters were alternately forced to drive to and from the city or take buses, which were often filled to capacity at the rush hour.

Mrs. J. T. Prowell, This garden has not been shown on a garden club pilgrimage since 1947. It is outstanding for its natural beauty.

Then came the home of the Percival Sterns, where the visitors walked down a drive bordered with fruit trees of many varieties.

At mid-day the ladies were served lunch at the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club. In the afternoon the tour continued to St. Augustine's Seminary, where camellia and rose bushes and azaleas are in abundance.

Next came a visit to the ranch type home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Voight. The tour was closed with the visit to Leonard King residence.

Today the Pilgrimage is continuing in Pass Christian.

No Place Like The Jail For Evan Ladner

Evan Ladner of Hancock County once remarked that "the jail here was the best on the Gulf Coast."

And he must really like it.

For last Wednesday Evan was released by the Grand Jury from a charge of robbery, after spending a long period in the calaboose.

That afternoon he was back in jail. This time on a petty larceny charge, for stealing some food stuffs from St. Augustine's Seminary.

He was tried and found guilty by Judge Nellus Rhodes and received a six month sentence. So he is back at home now in his favorite jail.

Today the Pilgrimage is continuing in Pass Christian.

At the present time Bass is on the critical list by a New Orleans hospital.

QUESTIONS PRISONER—District Attorney Boyce Holleman, seated, questions Cleve Reed of Pearl River County about the shooting that took place in Pearl River this week. Reed is being held on an open charge awaiting the condition of Marvin Bass, who was shot. Chief Deputy Sheriff Paul Egloff and Deputy Sheriff John Egloff look on.

Waveland Notes
By CECILLE TURCOTTE

Sympathy is extended to Melvin and Oswald Villere on the death of her sister and nephew, Mrs. Ruth Villere Hinson and Robert Hinson. Mrs. Hinson and her seven year-old son were killed in an automobile accident last Tuesday near Collins' Mississippi.

Mrs. H. K. Holderith attended the State Convention of the Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle in Jackson last week.

Mrs. and Mrs. Jack Giardania and children Catherine and Joseph were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Favre.

Mrs. and Mrs. Rome Dardene spent the weekend at their home on Water Street.

Mrs. and Mrs. Edward Fayard and children and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lytell were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fayard, Sr.

Mrs. and Mrs. Louis Collier and sons, Edward and Richard were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Villere.

Mrs. and Mrs. Dan Fleming of New Orleans were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hoggins.

Mrs. and Mrs. Reginald Fayard and Mr. and Mrs. Sunny Digs and children spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fayard, Sr.

COASTING
ANNE ORLEANS

The L. & N. R. strike not only affected business all along the Coast last week but reached into distant states to complicate the lives of Coast fathers and mothers. The strike came just at the time when Eastern schools were starting mid-term vacations. Up at Christ School in Arden, N. C., six boys began telephoning home to the Bay, asking "How are we going to get home?" They were Leigh, Joe and Freddy Carroll, Don Chamberlain, George Lehlitner and Jimmy Shadom. Much telephoning between parents. Finally, George Lehlitner, Sr., who was in Washington, D. C. came up with the solution. He went down to Greenville, S. C., rented a car and drove over to Arden and not only collected the six boys from the Bay but also Larry Williams and one of the La-bouisse boys from New Orleans. That really filled up the car; nine persons and all their luggage. George got rooms for them at a hotel and put them all on the train at six-thirty the next morning. He and the boys were met at Picaune, Miss., by the other mothers and fathers last Thursday night. The boys took it easy on Friday but George had to get to his office in New Orleans. No trains and the busses very late so he had to drive in. Our hats are off to George Lehlitner.

News from Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Turner who have been spending the winter in Virginia Beach. Their daughter graduates from Hollins College in Virginia the latter part of May and the whole family is due back at their home in Waveland some time in June.

James and Lucy Mayfield who have been occupying the Turner home this winter with their four boys, now looking for a place to stay while they try to get their new home built. They are very busy cleaning their lot and planting flowering shrubs.

If the fish are biting, Dick Mestayer knows where to find them. Last week he went out to Delacroix Island for trout.

Mr. and Mrs. Percival Stern visiting Mrs. Stern's folks out in San Francisco. The Coast is at its loveliest at this time and we hope they get back soon to enjoy all these lovely flowers.

Dr. and Mrs. Walter Hava going in to New Orleans Saturday to attend the New Orleans Opera Association's production of Andrea Chénier. They have seen the opera before and are delighted to know that tenor, Leonard Tucker and baritone Robert Weede, two of their favorite Metropolitan stars are going to take the leading roles.

Lots of company at the Kirkpatrick home. Recent visitors were Mr. Kirkpatrick's nephew, Mr. and Mrs. James Kirkpatrick and their children, James Taylor and Susan, from Newcastle, Wyoming. From Amesbury, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Coorsen came by for a visit of several days. Next week, Mrs. Kirkpatrick's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stevenson, of Lakewood, Ohio, will be visiting.

Helen has come over from New Orleans to visit with the visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Carter, Jr. and Mrs. Boulet, of Larose, La., and Mr. and Mrs. Legale of New Orleans, motored over to Point Clear, Alabama, for a delightful weekend.

Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Steinmayr came over from New Orleans to spend the weekend at their Nicholson Avenue home. Quite busy in the garden with a lot of competition from the gnats.

Andrew Mossmeier will be over from New Orleans this weekend to visit with her mother and Caroline and Bill and the boys, Billy and Ballard went to Jackson, Miss., to attend the religious ceremonies connected with the investiture of one of their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. James Rees came over last weekend, not to rest, not to garden but to do a big and thorough Spring house cleaning.

Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Socola, children and grandchildren opened the home on Oak Boulevard for Saturday and Sunday. Socola's cousin, Mr. Magruder, who is a car and travel over countries. Her headquarters still in Paris.

Gracious Serenity, Old Fashioned Comfort Keynote Dicks Waveland Home

Portrait shown is of a Dicks' daughter. This hangs over the fireplace in a downstairs bedroom.

Note: The Echo, with its Spring pilgrim again takes its readers on a series of visits to charming homes of our home of Dr. and Mrs. J. Dicks is listed in the telephone directory addresses as and a luxuriant Cherokee fence spell real peace for the retired physician in New Orleans and his gracious wife.

Their home, which was purchased many years ago by Dr. Dicks' father, looks only partly like the original property; for over the years major changes have been made in its structure.

At one time there were really two houses—one for living and one for eating, these connected by a breezeway. The kitchen and dining area are now gone and the breezeway is a sunny glassed-in porch where the family spends much of its time, especially during cold weather. The kitchen now has been moved to a spot at the side of the sun porch.

The 200 year old dry sink shown stands on the spacious sun porch of the Dicks' home.

This room, which is large enough to accommodate big parties, is furnished, as is much of the house, in Early American. The focal point of the furnishing is an antique dry sink, about 200 years old. It is kept filled with greenery. The shelves holding bric-a-brac.

Mrs. Dicks says of her antiques:

"I like antiques because I feel that if a piece of furniture has been made well enough to last a hundred years or so, it has to be good. Today furniture simply isn't made so well."

The lady of the house makes no bold pretense of "studying" antiques or doing her own restoration. She simply finds what she'd like by hunting through French Quarter and other shops or even in her own attic.

Each of the articles of furniture casually arranged throughout the home, has a definite place and purpose. The result is sheer comfort.

In the living room, for example the television set is flanked by two small chairs made in Belgium. They are especially comfortable for children and there are ten Dicks grandchildren who love to visit the Waveland home. There are other tables and chairs, which Mrs. Dicks inherited from her mother, and which while not early American, blend well into the atmosphere. There are beautiful paintings and prints—most of them large enough to hold their own without the usual "group arrangements." One particularly pretty painting on the living room wall is an Italian scene in oils, purchased by Mrs. Dicks' mother. It's oranges and yellows are a cheerful note for any dark day.

The centrally located living room, incidentally, was once a glorified hallway, too large to ignore in furnishing and too small to be a living room. By tearing out a wall near the front of the house, the Dicks' claimed it for real use.

There are two bedrooms, downstairs, both windowed to the Southeast, which is how the house captures the prevailing breeze. The master bedroom has cross ventilation and both bedrooms are coupled with bathrooms.

Upstairs the Dicks have the family dormitory, where all the children (and to be honest, their parents) love to go and romp and make all the clutter they please.

And not to be ignored is a small den, which completes a sort of master-suite on the master bedroom side of the house. It contains, in addition to Dr. Dicks' workmanlike desk, a fine collection of English prints. The color throughout is subdued, mostly blues, mauves, grays and greens in soft shades.

Across the entire front of the house is a screened porch, which looks out toward the rows of pecan trees which are, with a few chickens, Dr. Dicks' "job" now.

This couple, who have lived in the city and traveled in many foreign countries, place no spot nearer their hearts, than this old fashioned country home. It was made for six months of winter and six months of summer and 12 of good living.

by HOWARD SIMMONS
SOYBEANS

Soybeans make a good combination crop to go along with cotton. It is a highly mechanized crop and can be planted following cotton planting and still make a good yield.

Best planting dates for soybeans are April 25 to May 25. Seeding rates are from the hospital ward to one bushel per acre in regular rows.

Recommended soybean varieties and approximate harvesting dates are Dorman, September 25; Dorchsny, September 25; Lee, October 10; Roanoke and Jackson, about October 25.

Properly inoculated soybeans will furnish their own nitrogen. Beans should be inoculated if they are going to be planted on land that has not been planted with soybeans within three to five years. If soybeans were grown on the land last year, the beans need not be inoculated.

Beans treated with Spergon Arasan will usually result in better stands. However, while treatment will not harm bacteria already in the soil, it is likely to reduce the effectiveness of the inoculation put on the seed.

In hill areas most land planted with soybeans will need potash and phosphate. A good rate to use is 300 to 400 pounds of 0-14-14, or equivalent in other forms.

Lee variety is recommended over Ogden as this variety will stay in the pod longer and will produce higher yields. However, the supply of Lee seed is limited and farmers will find that Ogden is still a good variety of soybeans for oil.

Farmers can stagger harvesting of soybeans by planting Dorman for early harvest, Ogden or Lee for mid-season harvest and Roanoke for late harvest.

Remember, soybeans should not be planted in cold soil. If this is done, the seed are likely to rot before they germinate. Plan to prepare the land and re-disk it several times to let it get well warmed up before planting.

COTTON

Any farmer who grows cotton, whether he plants 7-10th of an acre or 7,000 acres may enroll in the 2-Bale-Per-Acre-Farm cotton program. The program is designed to promote the following of all seven steps to more cotton per acre and result in more money to Mississippi farm people.

No boll counts will be made in this program. ASC measured acreage and total gin receipts will determine acreage yields for the entire farm. Those averaging two or more bales per acre will be recognized on a district and state basis.

ORCHARD

There is still time to make a treatment for control of San Jose scale on peach trees. Right now, before growth starts is the time to spray with oil emulsion, one gallon to 20 gallons of water. Be sure to cover entire tree. On small trees good coverage can be had using a three gallon, knapsack sprayer.

—Mrs. Mabel Slora of Chicago is spending some time here visiting her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wise at their home on Boardman Avenue.

Home Agent Notes

March winds blew in a month long Clean-up program for Mississippi.

This Clean-up month is a time to be used for city and town dwellers as well as farm folks in removing fire and accident hazards. It is a time to make junk in attic, basement, barn, vacant lots, roadides, and other places that are eyesores and places of danger.

Get busy around your home and grounds. You'll profit all during the year from clean-up activities during March.

PLAID APPEAL

Plaids make a person look bigger and weigh more, but they come in such bright colors and designs, it is hard to resist them sometimes. When you feel you just have to have a plaid fabric for that new spring dress, select a plaid that harmonizes in size and character with your figure and personality. Small ones are for small people, and medium, dark colors for the large person, if she must have plaids. Solid dark colors minimize the size of the figure, remember.

When you buy plaid material, determine whether or not the plaid is a balanced one. Select a vertical stripe and read the colors and space to the right and left of the stripe. Then select a horizontal stripe and read the colors and spaces above and below the stripe.

A plaid requires more material than plain fabrics. No exact rule can be given for all sizes and types of plaids. A general rule is to buy one extra design length for each two places that are to be matched.

That is, if the design is 6 inches long and you must match it in four places, you should buy 12 extra inches of material.

Pass Christian Chorus Rates As Excellent

The girls' sextette from Pass Christian High School received an "excellent" rating on the contest numbers which they presented at the District 8-Choral Festival, held at Gulfport, last Friday. This rating entitles them to compete in the State Choral Festival, which will be held at Jackson in April.

Former Residents Announce Birth

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cox of Baton Rouge, La., announced this week the birth of a son, Charles Griffith Cox, March 11, 1956. Mrs. Cox is the former Evelyn Griffith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Griffith who were residents of this city and who now make their home in New Orleans.

She is the granddaughter of David Griffith of Pass Christian.

Mrs. Cox is a graduate of the Toussaint Infirmary Nurses School and Mr. Cox is a pre-medical student at L. S. U. at Baton Rouge.

Among the honor roll students at Pearl River Junior College this past term were Marcia Artiques, Robert Bressler of the Bay, Donald Nicaise of Kiln.

Cpl. Favre In Japan

Cpl. Bruce Favre, son of Mrs. A. G. Favre, Sr., recently spent a week's leave from his unit in Korea.

Favre is serving as a supply sergeant in the 38th Engineer Group's 11th Battalion.

Soldiers stationed in Korea are given periodic rest and recuperation leaves to visit Japan. There the Army provides a full variety of entertainment, tourist and educational facilities.

Favre entered the Army in August 1953 and arrived in the Far East in May 1954.

He is a 1951 graduate of St. Stanislaus College.

Pvt. Fairconnetue In Alaska

Pvt. Roy Fairconnetue, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fairconnetue, Bay St. Louis, arrived in Alaska last week and is serving with the 71st Infantry Division's 4th Regiment.

Soldiers stationed in Alaska undergo training for cold-weather combat while guarding the northern approaches to the U. S. Fairconnetue entered the Army in July 1954 and received basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C.

He is a 1954 graduate of St. Rose de Lima High School.

Cynthia Bentz of the Bay, a freshman at Mississippi Southern, is one of the new pledges to Alpha Lambda Delta Sorority at the school. She was one of nine chosen to be new members of the group.

Cpl. McLain Commended

Cpl. Billy McLain, son of Mrs. Velma M. Taconi, 212 Carroll Ave., recently received a letter of commendation from the commandant of the Army's European Signal School in Ansbach, Germany, where he was an instructor.

McLain, who is returning to the U. S. for separation from active service, was thanked by Colonel S. P. Fink for his industry and initiative while teaching at the school. The letter cites McLain's help in the development of training aids and methods as well as his efforts in making several tour demonstrations successful.

Presenting the letter to McLain in the absence of Colonel Jones was Captain Louis R. Jones, officer in charge of the wire section in which McLain worked. Jones showed his personal appreciation, saying that the Bay St. Louis soldier had "been a wonderful help while here."

Jones entered the Army in May 1953 and arrived in Europe in May 1954. He served at Fort Jackson, S. C., and Camp Gordon, Ga.

McLain is a 1949 graduate of Bay High. His wife, Janelle, lives in New Orleans.

Speaker Named For Banquet March 30th

Col. C. C. Sullivan, prominent Hattiesburg businessman and a noted Mississippi Southern College booster, will be the speaker at the "Dutch" dinner for Hancock County Southern Alumni to be held March 30th.

The dinner is to be held at the Reed Hotel. Mrs. Harold Weston is in charge of arrangements.

Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Shipp are building the lovely new home going up near the beach on Bay View Court.

Modern Etiquette

Q. Please give some tips on the giving of a buffet supper.

A. Anytime between five and eight p. m. Hot dishes, salads, rolls, appetizers, dessert and beverages are served. The dishes, napkins and silverware are placed on the table with the food, and the guests help themselves. This is a good way to entertain a large gathering without maid service.

Q. Do good manners today disapprove of untidiness for informal correspondence?

A. No, provided the shades are not too garish. Men, of course, should stick to white stationery.

Q. When giving an informal dinner, how should the invitations be issued?

A. Either by brief note, or over the telephone.

Q. While confined in a hospital, many of my friends brought me gifts. I have thanked most of these persons either personally or over the phone. Is it necessary for me to write them each a "thank you" note?

A. Only to those you have not thanked personally.

Q. Is it proper for a married woman to use her maiden name as a middle name after she is married?

A. Yes, this is the established custom. In other words, Dorothy Ruth Smith marries John Henry Jones, and she then becomes Dorothy Smith Jones.

Q. Is it all right for a young man, who has just become engaged to break the news to all his friends?

A. The announcement of an engagement is the inalienable right of the bride-elect. A young man should not tell even his intimate friends until after the young lady has announced it, either formally or informally, to her friends.

Q. From which side should one properly sit down in his chair at the dinner table?

A. From whichever side is more convenient.

Q. When cheese is served with apple pie, should it be eaten with the fork or the fingers?

A. Usually it's more convenient to eat it with the fork. But it's not improper to pick it up with the fingers if you choose.

Q. Is it always necessary that a chaperone be a married woman?

A. No; any woman of mature years may serve in this capacity.

—A very large group of Bay citizens attended the St. Stanislaus Alumni banquet at the St. Charles Hotel in New Orleans Sunday night. Mr. George Seuzeneau is president of the group, and Sheriff Egloff, Mayor Scalfie, Commissioner Ladner were among the guests.
